From the Desk of Ines Turus, Founder and CEO

Dear Friends,

We are dedicated more than ever to our mission of creating spectacular travel experiences that exceed your expectations. Here's what to look for in the coming months.

Our Alaska Planning Sessions are coming soon. You have so many options when exploring the Last Frontier, that you would not want to miss a thing. Alaska experts will be here to give valuable tips and answer questions. There are still a few cabins for the 2024 season but booking now for 2025 is definitely a wise move.

Ines with Tor Hagen,
Chairman of Viking

Our Explorer Evening featuring the expanding world of Viking is both informative and fun! Open to new to Viking cruisers or those interested in Viking's exploration cruises.

Interesting news- World Cruises, an experience generally saved for the retirement years, are now more popular among our younger cruisers who find that they can work from anywhere in the world! See these great World Cruise itineraries sprinkled throughout this issue.

Celebrate a special Anniversary or milestone birthday with one of our upper premium/luxury ships. You will not be disappointed! Ask about Windstar, the Paul Gauguin to Tahiti, Regent Seven Seas, Oceania, Azamara, and Crystal. These are all about specialized sea and port experiences, white glove service, and wonderful food options, while getting into ports big ships can't.

In this issue, look for a marvelous value on Celebrity Cruises to Europe this summer with an air credit to help get you there!

Yours for amazing journeys,

Ines

P.S. Seating is limited. If you are interested in attending one or more of our events, please call your travel advisor for more details today.

Rest In Peace Our Dear Friend, Kate Malone.

Kate Malone spent 20 years as a Cruise Advisor for Cruises International. She traveled on 78 cruises visiting 96 countries often attending to her clients on the ships. She finally retired at age 75! Because of Kate's hard work, love and care for people, she enjoyed a well lived life and was loved by many. She will be dearly missed.
